ALUMNI PROGRAMME

Alumni is crucial for educational institutions. Engaged alumni can provide current students with valuable networking opportunities, mentorship, and career guidance. Active alumni are often more likely to donate, contributing to scholarships, programs, and infrastructure development. Alumni can offer insights on the relevance of the curriculum and the effectiveness of programs, helping institutions adapt to changing industry needs. Engaged alumni foster a sense of community, encouraging collaboration and support among graduates and current students. Alumni from various backgrounds can provide diverse viewpoints that enrich the educational experience and support inclusive practices.

As part of the alumni engagement, our alumni Mr. Sebin Antony, conducted an orientation session on “Career Prospects for Economics Graduates” on 11-09-2013. Students of final year classes attended the session. Students get valuable information from the class. After the presentation, there was an interactive session for clearing the doubts of the participants. Students were actively participated in the interactive session.
