WOMEN EMPOWERMENT PROGRAMME

Empowering women through entrepreneurship

The programme is designed for second year B.Com girls students. The programme impart skills on making paper bags. They can use this skill as a self employment opportunity by producing and marketing paper bags which are more eco friendly. Students participated in the programme. The training was given by Mrs Jasna P, Assistant Professor and HOD Department of Commerce on 31 July 2023 9:30 am-12:00 pm. 40 girls students of II year B Com participated in the programme.

WOMEN EMPOWERMENT PROGRAMME

Conducting a women empowerment programs by college students is essential for promoting gender equality, fostering leadership skills, addressing social issues, and empowering women to achieve their full potential. By taking proactive steps and advocating for change, students contribute to creating a more equitable and supportive society for all genders. Women empowerment programs help raise awareness about gender disparities and promote equal opportunities for women in education, employment, and society. 2 Students from the department visited a Kudumbasree Unit and provided training on mobile banking. By educating themselves and others, college students contribute to creating a more equitable and inclusive environment. Empowerment programs can provide career guidance, skill-building workshops, and networking opportunities for women to enhance their employability and economic independence. This can lead to better job prospects, financial stability, and empowerment in decision-making.

Gender Sanitisation on Media

27 /02/2024

Venue: Communication and Journalism Department Lab

On February 27, 2024, Communication and Journalism Department had an insightful session on 'Gender Sanitisation on Media.' The session was led by Anu Devesia a distinguished alumna of the department and media person working at Mathrubhumi Online.

The session was attended by the first and second-year MAJMC students, eager to gain deeper insights into the critical issue of gender representation in media. The session was highly interactive. Anu Devesia encourages students to actively participate and share their viewpoints. This interactive approach facilitated a deeper understanding of the concepts discussed. Anu's journey and achievements served as an inspiration to the students, highlighting the impact that one can have in the field of media

It not only provided valuable insights into gender representation in media but also empowered students to contribute positively to the field.

WOMEN EMPOWERMENT PROGRAMME

On 18 March 2024, in celebration of International Women's Day, the students of the Department of Commerce-BBA organized various women empowerment activities. Under the guidance of Ms. Anumol Thomas, Dr. Seena P P, and Punnya Prakashan A K, Assistant Professors of the Department of Commerce-BBA, the students conducted paper craft sessions. Paper craft trainer Ms. Safa handled the session. These activities provided the students with new experiences and practical skills in craft, contributing to their personal and professional development. A total of 30 students attended the programme.

Women's Day Celebration

Debate Competition on Gender Neutrality

8/3/ 2024

As part of the Women's Day celebrations, the Communication and Journalism Department organized a debate on the topic of "Gender Neutrality" on March 8, 2024. The event took place in the MCJ Seminar Hall and saw active participation from the first-year MCJ batch.

The debate focused on the concept of gender neutrality, discussing its implications, benefits and challenges in contemporary society. This topic was chosen to align with the theme of Women's Day, emphasizing equality and inclusivity.

Students from the first-year MCJ batch participated enthusiastically, showcasing their debating skills and engaging in a thought-provoking discussion.

The debate on gender neutrality was a resounding success, providing a platform for students to articulate their views and engage in constructive discussion. The event not only highlighted the diverse opinions on gender neutrality but also reinforced the importance of dialogue and critical thinking in addressing contemporary issues. The debate on gender neutrality, held on Women's Day, underscored the department's commitment to fostering an inclusive and thought-provoking academic environment.
