Constitution Day Celebration

FDSJ SES COLLEGE
SREEKANDAPURAM

Date: November 26 & 27, 2023

The FDSJ wing of SES College celebrated Constitution Day with great enthusiasm and a series of engaging events on November 26 & 28, 2023. This celebration aimed to instill a deeper understanding and respect for the Indian Constitution among students and their families.

As per the instructions from the university, the College Principal, Dr. Dominic Thomas led the reading of the preamble of the Indian constitution on November 28. Students uttered the reading of the Preamble. The students recited the Preamble in unison, which reinforced their commitment to the values enshrined in the Constitution.

Programs Conducted

1. Constitution Day Celebration Contest

The FDSJ wing organized various programs on November 26, the actual Constitution Day even though that was on Sunday. One of the key events was a Preamble Reading Contest designed specifically for the family members of the students. This contest aimed to foster a communal appreciation for the Constitution within the students' households.

Participation and Winners

Participants: Eight family members of different students participated in this contest.

Winners

First Place: Devananda T

Second Place: Jilna Mathew

Third Place: JSailakshmi

2. Opinion Making Contest

Another significant event was the Opinion Making Contest, conducted through Google Forms, allowing a broader participation of students. This contest encouraged students to express their views and opinions on various aspects of the Constitution and its contemporary relevance.

Participation and Winners

Participants: Thirty-three students participated in this contest.

Winners

First Place: Sufaija T (2nd Year MAJMC)

Second Place: Sangeeth M V (3rd Year Physics)

Outcome

The Constitution Day celebrations organized by the FDSJ wing of SES College were a resounding success. The events not only commemorated the adoption of the Indian Constitution but also engaged both students and their families in meaningful activities that highlighted the importance of constitutional values. The active participation and enthusiasm displayed the effective dissemination of constitutional awareness.

THE IMPLEMENTATION OF NATIONAL ANTHEM PLAYING
FDSJ Wing
SREEKANDAPURAM

24/08/2023

On the 24th of August, 2023, the Forum for Democratic Student Justice (FDSJ) at SES College, Sreekandapuram, submitted a request to the Principal, Dr. Dominic Thomas, to play the national anthem every evening at 3:30 PM through the college audio system. The request aimed to foster a sense of patriotism and unity among the students.

Details of the Request

The letter from FDSJ highlighted the importance of instilling patriotic values and suggested that the national anthem be played as the final bell rings at 3:30 PM each day. This proposal was designed to remind students of their responsibilities as citizens and evoke pride in their national identity (Attached with this at the end).

Discussion in Staff Council

The principal brought this proposal to the staff council for discussion. The council deliberated on the benefits and logistics of implementing this practice.

Approval and Implementation

After thorough deliberation, the staff council unanimously approved the proposal. The decision was made to start playing the national anthem every evening at 3.30 PM, beginning immediately.

Outcome

The initiative has been well-received by the students and staff, reinforcing a sense of national pride and unity. The college community has embraced this new routine, marking the end of each academic day with a reminder of their shared values and responsibilities. This initiative reflects the college's commitment to fostering a strong sense of patriotism and civic responsibility among its students.

Subject: Request to Play National Anthem during Evening Routine

Respected Sir,

We, the officials belonging to the Forum for Democratic Student Justice (FDSJ), at SES College wish to bring a humble request to your esteemed office regarding an important matter that reflects our love and respect for our nation.

As proud citizens of our great nation, we believe that fostering a strong sense of patriotism among the student community is paramount. With this aspiration in mind, we come forward to propose the inclusion of the national anthem as a part of our college routine. Just as the morning prayer song helps instill a sense of serenity and focus at the start of our day, we believe that the national anthem will serve as a reminder of our unity, diversity, and shared values every evening.

Hence, we earnestly recommend that the national anthem be played every evening at 3:30 PM, when the college bell rings to mark the end of the academic day. This simple yet impactful gesture will not only remind us of our responsibilities as citizens but also evoke a sense of pride in being a part of this remarkable nation.

We sincerely request your kind consideration of this proposal and seek your guidance on how we can proceed with its implementation. Your support and encouragement in this matter would mean a lot to us and to the entire student body.

We eagerly await your response and look forward to contributing to the cultivation of patriotic values within our college community.

Yours sincerely,

PREVIN P F
